The Grove, home of one of UK's most prestigious golf courses, reopened its doors this week, at the end of the lock down. It has not been a simply reopening, but the unveiling of a brand new resort, following a two-year renovation program lead by the award-winning studio Martin Hulbert Design.

All the best to The Grove, for a spectacular new beginning!

Interna, which back in 2003 had been in charge for the supply of the interiors of the hotel, has been called to create the new look of The Grove, working for the Lounges, informal meeting areas, historical core of The Grove the Guestrooms, elegant and refined, filled with character and charm the Glasshouse, bright restaurant and bar overlooking the magnificent gardens the Stables, relaxed and homey restaurant located in the former horse stables.
