The NoMad
Hotel

New York

USA

Interior designer: Decoration Jacques Garcia
Period: 2012
Client: 1170 Broadway Associates, LLC

The NoMad Hotel is housed in a turn of the century Beaux-Arts building that has been fully restored to its original grandeur with interiors by the French designer Jacques Garcia. The hotel is intended as a fresh take on the classic grand hotels of Europe but with a distinct New York sensibility. The 168 rooms are residential in feel and decorated with the Garcia classic, timeless style.

Interna long lasting cooperation with Jacques Garcia found its top-level expression within this hotel for which Interna supplied a range of high-end sittings, tables and case-goods both for public areas and for rooms and suites; many of these items have been designed and produced specifically for the project, whereas many others have been selected from Interna furniture catalogue Les Grands Classiques de Jacques Garcia, that counts more than 50 Garcia designs produced with the highest standards of quality and distributed exclusively by the Italian manufacturer since 2005.

The restaurant is comprised of a series of rooms surrounding a glass-enclosed atrium. The Atrium is an airy, sunlit space inspired by the great courtyards of Europe. The natural light filtering through the pyramidal glass roof provides an inviting space available for dining throughout the day and evening.

The Parlour: its centre is an inviting open hearth space, where guests may observe the preparation of food. Elegant and convivial dinner area, it is a stately room featuring dark oak furnishings and richly textured fabrics.

Dining Fireplace: the focal point within this intimate cove is the original fireplace imported from a great French château.
